Understanding & Preventing Identity Theft

March 16, 12:00pm—12:30pm

Join us for this quick session to help you understand what identity theft is, the many forms it can take, its prevalence, what you can do to defend yourself, and resources available to you if you fall victim to identity theft.

Successful Credit Management & Reducing Debt

March 24, 6:30pm—7:00pm

This course will provide you with a general understanding of how credit works and why it is important today. Learn about credit bureaus, reports, and scores—including how you can keep your credit score looking good and working for you! Join us to learn about reducing debt and ways to stay debt free for good!

Preparing Your Budget for Retirement

April 14, 12:00pm—12:30pm

Make a financial plan for retirement! Learn how to make a retirement budget, estimate revised income, find your estimated Social Security payment amount, review expenses, and hear about available resources to help make ends meet. A great first step for anyone planning for retirement!

What is Your Money Personality?

April 22, 6:30pm—7:00pm

Based on Olivia Mellan's work on money personalities. This session will guide you through her 5 money personality types, explain how these personalities inter-relate, and illustrate what this means for establishing money harmony for yourself and within your relationships. Great for anyone looking to gain control of their finances!
